Characteristics of Interview Participants

Respon- dent	Gender	Age	Occupation	Mobility Situation
#13	Male	25–29	Student	Moved to the city without specific plans, and then decided to go to university. He has family in the city, visits home, and has relatives come and visit in the city. He expects to eventually return and to be involved in community affairs.
#14	Male	45–49	Counsellor	Moved to the city shortly after marriage. He now commutes to work in the community and would not expect to go back.
#15	Female	45–49	Nurse	Moved to the city some time ago. She would like to move back to the community upon retirement.
#16	Female	65+	Retired	Moved to the city as a young girl, where she stayed to work. Lives in the city now, but intends to retire to her community.
#17	Female	35–39	Administrator	Moved to the city for education and employment. She has relatives in the city, as well as family in her home community. She does not expect to return, mainly because her husband is non-Aboriginal.
